Marcia.

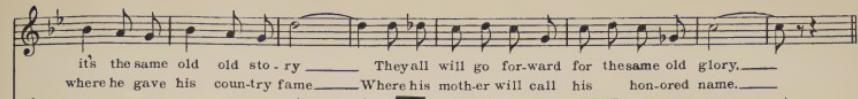

Piano,

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the piano, marked 'Marcia.' and 'f'. The middle staff is for the voice, starting with a melodic line. The bottom staff is also for the piano. The lyrics are integrated into the vocal line. The music includes various chords, eighth-note patterns, and rests. The vocal part features several melodic phrases, some with sustained notes or grace notes.

Some-where on the old Con-ti-ent _____ Where life does not seem to be con-tent _____ Some-
And af-ter the bat-tle is fought _____ And each one a les-son has taught _____ And-where a moth-er's heart beats full of hope and fear When they part with their sons so dear _____

Prai-se the ones that fought so brave And the hon-or of the coun-try saved _____

Some-where you can hear them all say _____ Don't be a-fraid I'll re-turn some day _____ And so
It was one of the old bugle call _____ That he tramped for-ward to the fall _____ That's—

Chorus.

Some-where There's thou-sand brok-en hearts Some-where they kiss and then they part.

Ov-er on — the East-ern Hem-is-phere Some-where they leave with a tear and cry.

Some-where — they leave with cheer good-bye — and from their heart a sigh im-parts — Their hearts are ach-ing, Their hearts are break-ing And some-where there are thousand broken hearts.
